Billing Policy Agreement

10/31/25

RE: Billing Policy

Dear Parents

Beginning November 1, 2025 Blossom Academy will be enforcing our billing policy. Full-time clients must attend a minimum of 33 attendance hours per week, in order to receive full credit from Jobs and Family Services. Part-Time clients must attend a minimum of 10 hours in order to receive the full credit. Those parents not meeting the minimum requirements will now be responsible for the remaining balance, when the minimum requirement is not met.

Example:

Pre-School Rate =	$283.80 per week.
Attendance Hours (24.99): JFS Credit	- $187.00 per week
Parent Fee:	- $5.00 per week
Remaining Balance:	$ 91.80

Parents with children in the After-School program will need to pay close attention to this policy. Please make sure that your child is meeting the required minimum hours assigned.

In the past, we have been very lenient with attendance, this policy will not affect the majority of our parents. The majority of parents are already meeting the necessary minimum requirements. Please stay on top of the number of absent days you have, back swipe list, both will assist you in making sure you hit your minimum requirement.

If you have any questions, please see the Enrollment Specialist whom will be able to assist you with your number of hours of attendance.

I understand that I must meet the assigned minimum requirements per my voucher status assigned by Job and Family Service. If hours are not met I understand that I will be responsible for all remaining fees that were not paid by Job and Family Services. If fees are not paid this could result in losing your space at the childcare center until fees are paid in full.
